

Visual Story

Step-free Route to the M&S Archive from Bus Route 56 stops

If you're getting the bus from Leeds city centre, this bus stop is closest to the M&S Archive.

The stop is called Leeds University Business School, stop number 45011401.

Keeping the buildings on your right, walk to the junction.

If you're getting the bus towards Leeds city centre, this bus stop is closest to the M&S Archive.

The stop is called Moorland Road, Woodhouse, stop number 45011402.

Keeping the black railing on your right, walk to the traffic lights, cross the road here and turn left.

Follow the path round to the right.

Go straight ahead here,
keeping the road on your left.

Keep going!

When you see the M&S Archive signs, turn right.

Stay on the path and go past the barrier.

Be aware of cars moving in and out of the parking spaces.

There is a slight downward slope here towards the parking spaces.

Now you can see the M&S Archive ahead of you.

At the moment there is scaffolding blocking the usual pathway.

When it's safe to do so, cross the road to the cycle lane markings.

Check for traffic from behind you and from the left, then cross to the bollards.

Turn to your right and go along the path, keeping the flower beds on your left.

Look to your left and you'll see the M&S Archive entrance.

Go through the automatic doors and turn to your left to enter the Archive.

We hope you have a great visit!